DISAPPEARANCE OF ELDRIDGE MAN PUZZLE

Edward Griswold, assistant supervisor at the Sonoma State Home has been advanced to the position of supervisor. He takes the place of George Wilbur, who is mysteriously missing. Under the rules a position is kept open for 10 days for an employee who absents himself from the institution without leave.

Mr. Wilbur left the home August 12 for his annual 10 days' vacation and should have returned August 26. His whereabouts are still a mystery to Dr. Fred O. Butler, medical superintendent. Theories advanced as to why Wilbur has not returned include those of foul play, suicide or a determination to let his absence go unexplained. One theory is that the missing man, who otefn befriended paroled inmates of the institution in San Francisco, may have exhibited his bankroll and was waylaid for it and killed.

S. V. Thompson, an employee at the Home for the past 10 years, has been advanced to the position of assistant supervisor.

Miss Hallie Rambo Bride Of F. Giorno

Young Business Woman Weds Popula Young Sonoma Resident Friday of Last Week.

Miss Hallie Rambo, well and favorably known young business woman of Sonoma, was married to Frank Giorno, popular local resident, on Friday of the last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Giorno.

The bride is the capable linotype operator of the Expositor and is highly regarded by the community. She is an active worker in local churches and has been a member of the local choirs.

Mr. Giorno is also musical and is prominently identified with local fraternal orders. He has a position with the Sonoma Valley Bakery and is not only popular with customers, but esteemed by his employer.

The young couple, accompanied by the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Arthur Rambo, made a quiet trip to the county seat on Friday of last week where a license was obtained. The contracting parties gave their ages as 27 respectively. After the nuptial knot had been tied, Mr. and Mrs. Giorno departed on their honeymoon. They will be heartily congratulated upon their returned to Sonoma, where they will make their home, and several nice affairs are already being planned in their honor.

This is the second wedding in the bride's family of late, her mother, Mrs. K. Rambo, having recently been married to Charles Brown, a Civil War veteran.

Returned From Trip to the South

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pauli and the Misses McGimsey, sisters of Mrs. Pauli, have returned from their motor trip south. The party went first to Madera where the Misses McGimsey visited while Roy Pauli and wife proceeded by train to Los Angeles. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw in the southern metropolis and visited many points of interest while there, including the moving picture studios.

Last Sunday and Monday Mr. and Mrs. Pauli went to San Francisco for the Pany Express celebration and at the rodeo there had a close-up of their favorite film star, Mary Pickford. They report Mary more beautiful in real life than on the screen.

Congressmon Will Attend Birthday Party

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club will give a birthday anniversary party at its club house here Friday night, Sept. 21, to celebrate its anniversary. Card players will enjoy "500," and in addition there will be a program dancing and refreshments. Mrs. W. L. Murphy is arranging the program for the evening, which will include an illustrated talk on Alaska by Congressman C. F. Lea.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Perry of San Francisco spent the holidays with the Tom Monahans, who also entertained Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hurst and family.

Ralph Buchan, Chief Pharmacist Mate, Is Listed Among Those Missing.

Ralph Buchan, whose boyhood was spent in Sonoma and who grew to young manhood under the flag of the United States in the Navy Service, where he won honors and promotion to chief pharmacist's mate, was among those who went on the treacherous reefs near Arguillo Point in the torpedo destroyer boats Sunday and is listed among the missing in that terrible catastrophe.

Only five hours from his home in San Diego, after an absence on a cruise of several months to Alaska with his ship, Buchan on the Destroyer Young, followed close in the wake of the doomed destroyer which led nine other ships to destruction, went down with his ship without a fighting chance to save himself. The line of boats piled up one after another in the darkness which enveloped them but the Young, on which the Sonoma boy was one of the crew was among the hardest hit and went over on its side submerged in the high seas with all on board with few exceptions trapped in the hull.

When news of the tragedy reached Sonoma the entire community was enshrouded with sorrow for few young men have been as generally liked and admired as was Ralph Buchan. Seeing him grow up from a child, a manly little fellow who was at all times the dutiful son of his widowed mother, a cheerful playmate, loyal friend and finally big brother to all less fortunate than was he, Ralph Buchan's career was watched with interest by all who knew him. His progress in the service of Uncle Sam was most gratifying to his family and many friends. Since his enlistment in the Navy nine years ago he had traveled all over the world, bubt no matter how far from home, his first thought was always of his mother and loved ones here. When back from his cruises his Sonoma home was the first place he came to and his furloughs here will always be remembered for the joyous home-coming parties of the young sailor boy and the sunshine he radiated.

Two years ago while stationed in the Hawaiaan Islands, he met a charming girl from his home state, Iowa, Miss Betty Johnson, who was visiting friends in Honolulu. The young couple were married there in 1921 and came to Sonoma on their honeymoon. They later returned and made their home in the Islands where Buchan continued in the Navy service and where a little son, Ralph Jr., yas born. Recently the Sono... was transfered to the Pacific Fleet and the family had settled in San Diego but a short time previous to the awful tragedy which cost the life of the proud young husband and father.

The victim of the disaster having landed at San Francisco from his Alaska cruise last week, had been in Sonoma visiting his mother and little nephew Robley Harbort, who is in a San Francisco hospital. He rejoined the squadron Saturday on its ill fated trip to the home port, San Diego.

When word of the wreck reached his mother, she left hurriedly for the south. Buchan's body has not yet been recovered.

WELL KNOWN LADY DIED ON WEDNESDAY

Miss Adelheid Riensch, sister of the late Mrs. Maria Clewe, and aunt of City Treasurer, William F. Clewe, passed away Wednesday. She had been suffering from a nervous breakdown for some time past and had recently returned from St. Helena where she had been in a sanitarium.

Miss Riensch had resided in Sonoma Valley 38 years, and as a member of the Clewe family was well and favorably known. In former years she had taken a prominent part in club and musical affairs and was herself a splendid musician of European training. She was a native of Bremen, Germany.

The funeral took place yesterday from the old Clewe home, over which Miss Riensch presided for many years and after a simple bbut impressive ceremony the remains were taken to San Francisco for cremation. Rev. Milliken officiated at Mount Olivet.

Mr. and Mrs Clarence Brown of Berkeley have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luchsinger. Brown and Luchsinger were former fellow employees at the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco. Mrs. Brown was formerly Miss Ruth Adair of Berkeley.

WOMAN IN BAD CHECK CASE IS OUT ON BAIL

Mrs. Violette Whisemand, held in the county jail on a charge of issuing fictitious checks in Sonoma Valley, was released on putting up a bail of $2000.

While in jail Mrs. Whisemand stated that she did not issue the checks, but that they were all issued by Mrs. E. B. Robinson of Oakland, who hired her as a companion on a vacation trip. She claimed that she had been given two of the allegedly bad checks as well as the resort owners.

Word was received later at the sheriff's office that Mrs. Robinson is in a Modesto hospital suffering from injuries sustained in an auto wreck while on her way home from Sonoma Valley.

As soon as she is able to leave the hospital she will be served with the warrant, it is said.

Attorney Robert Poppe Critically Ill

St. Francis Church Is Dedicated

Archbishop Hanna and Many Visiting Clergymen At Dedication Here On Last Sunday.

With all the stately pomp and dignity befitting the occasion, St. Francis church was dedicated Sunday by the Most Reverend Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of San Francisco. The new edifice was thronged with worshippers, as the Archbishop in his robes and wearing the traditional hat and bearing the staff of his high office came down the aisle, accompanied by the assisting clergymen.

At the front of the church the members of the Serra Club, an escort of honor, stood with silk hats in hands, flanking both sides of the aisle through which His Grace and the priests passed as they ascended the altar. Having pronounced the solemn and impressive words of benediction thereon, the Archbishop next blessed the Stations of the Cross, after which candles gleamed upon the altar and high mass was solemnized by Rev. Thomas F. Byrne of Haywards, cousin of the resident pastor. On the altar with Archbishop Hanna and assisting Father Thomas Byrne were Father Cassin of Santa Rosa, Father Kiely of Petaluma, Father John Cantwell, secretary to the Archbishop; Father O'Keefe of St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco; Father Garvin of St. Helena, Father Lewis of Haywards, Father Delahanty of Cotati, Father Dollard of Sebastopol, and Father J. F. Byrne of Sonoma.

Archbishop Hanna delivered an able sermon in which he thanked all who had made possible Sonoma's beautiful new church and admonished the parishioners to rear a real temple of new spiritual life in the community and to set a high example of character building for the young generation to emulate. May the church typify a religious renaissance in the community was the keynote of the Archbishop's fine sermon, in which he also paid tribute to the Mission fathers and their sacrifice and zeal in founding here the nucleus of this parish.

A male choir from Menlo Park sang the dedicatory mass in perfect unison and at the offertory there was a beautiful tenor solo.

Visitors from many parts of the state were here to see the new church dedicated.

Twenty-four members were present. A large birthday cake adorned the table and after refreshments had been served, Mrs. Norrbom was presented by the President, in behalf of the members, with a beautiful set of silverware as a token for her valued services.

Over Admission Day tourists took advantage of the two days and enjoyed an outing at El Verano. Many were from San Francisco and other bay cities. Local summer resorts were crowded and all the visitors enjoyed their outing in the Valley of the Moon.

J. Signorelli, vineyardist and progressive, has returned to his El Verano ranch after spending several months abroad, visiting his old folks and other relatives and friends in old Italy. Mr. Signorelli had a most wonderful voyage and visited other Europeon countries on his journey. He says, though, he is glad to get back to the Valley of the Moon.

W. C. Goldsby came over from Napa county Saturday evening, driving a motorcycle with side car attachment. In ascending the western foothills on his way to the Harding ranch, the machine became overbalanced and rider and all went tumbling down the steep hillside for some distance. Mr. Goldsby, luckily, was thrown clear of the motorcycle and except for slight scratches and bruises, was uninjured. The motor, however, was wrecked beyond repair.

Charles Spindler, insurance and San Francisco business man, was a welcome visitor in El Verano Sunday. Mr. Spindler was looking over his land interests and meeting his old friends in Sonoma Valley.

Miss Stella McGill, popular Sonoma Valley Native Daughters, attended the Admission Day celebration in San Francisco Monday.

Jack Miller, famous Seals manager, who for several years has had charge of the San Francisco base ball team when they trained at Boyes Springs, died at Saranac Lake, N. Y., a victim of consumption. ARE PUNISHED FOR SHOOTING A FAWN

Manuel Lopez and Tony Alvarez, two grape pickers whose homes are in San Francisco were recently fined $100 each and were sent to jail for five days each by Justice Snow of Napa for shooting a fawn in Chiles Valley.

Deputy Fish and Game Commissioner Howard Westendorf is to be credited with this successful prosecution. Some time ago some dogs dug up the hide of a fawn in Chiles Valley. Westendorf undertook the matter of running down the men guilty of shooting the fawn and shortly afterwards caused the arrest of Lopez and Alvarez.

At first the men denied their guilt, but after Westendorf had confronted them with the conclusive evidence he had unearthed against them they admitted the misdemeanor.

Later Justice Snaw, after both defendants had paid their fines, suspended execution of the jail term part of their sentences. It seems that both men have wives and children that are dependent upon them and Justice Snow decided it would be better to see them go to work than go to jail.

ESCAPE FROM ELDRIDGE UP TO QUEER PRANKS

(From Petaluma Courier)

Joe Bennett, 24, inmate of the home for feeble minded at Eldridge, was arrested Monday by Constable James Sullivan of Petaluma after he had robbed the Dr. J. C. Hackman home near Penngrove.

Bennett was coming out of the Hackman home when Mrs. Hackman returned from her parent's home, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Stickney. She asked him what he wanted and he informed her that he was hungry and had picked up some apples. He acted queerly and she notified her parents. Searching the house the owner found that the stranger had robbed the place and a child's bank and other articles were stolen.

The man, who is demented, had mixed up a pan of dough and had spread it under the bed clothes in one of the rooms. He had completely ransacked the house.

Word was immediately sent to Constable James Sullivan who arrived at the ranch but the fellow had disappeared. The constable searched all the county roads and then returned to the Hackman ranch to find that the stranger had been caught by Bill McCarter and returned to the ranch. McCarter and Dr. Stickney tied the man's hands together so he could not escape.

The officer then took him to the jail and notified the officials at Eldridge who came over after him later.

Bennett was standing on the road below the Hackman ranch when he was caught by McCarter. He had broken the child's bank and was counting the money. He made no resistance when taken into custody.

Constable Sullivan searched him at the jail and found a bunch of keys in his possession. He informed the officer that he had stolen the keys at a ranch house on the Sonoma road last Saturday. At the jail he talked rationally and said that he lived in Oakland before being sent to the home.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE IS A RATIONAL THINKER

Whatever heart qualities we admire in men, it is reassuring to know that men in high office, guiding the destiny of our nation and perhaps others, are above all, sound logical thinkers. We have been led to believe that President Coolidge is cool; in short, that he is silent, aloof and not genial. That type has its good points, for such a nature is not impulsive. There are too many emotional pleas to withstands today. Hysteria accompanies too many efforts and sways too many important issues. Let the United States rejoice, then, that it has a cool man in the President's chair. Calm review of national conditions and sound deduction will come from this son of New England Calvin Coolidge.

We have direct access to his trend of mind in speeches he has made before such august bodies as the National Bar Association. Last year, before he ever dreamed of being President of the United States, Coolidge gave utterance to the ideas quoted below. We do not know to what legislation he referred in his speech, but we believe a President whose views on the law are so sane and enlightening will have a magnificent constituency and merits the confidence and support of all true Americans. In speaking of the growing panacea of the law, Mr. Coolidge, then Vice President, said:

"Behind very many of these enlarging activities (of the Government) lies the untenable theory that there is some short cut to perfection. It is conceived that there can be a horizontal elevation of the standards of the Nation, immediate and perceptible, by the simple device of new laws. This has never been the case in human experience. Progress is slow and the result of a long and arduous process of self-discipline. It is not conferred upon the people, it comes from the people. In a republic, the law reflects rather than makes the standard of conduct and the state of public opinion. Real reform does not begin with a law, it ends with a law. The attempt to dragoon the body when the need is to convince the soul will end only in revolt.

"Under the attempt to perform the impossible there sets in a general disintegration. When legislation fails, those who look upon it as a sovereign remedy simply cry out for more legislation. A sound and wise statesmanship which recognizes the attempts to abide by its limitations will undoubtedly find itself displaced by that type of public official who promises much, talks much, legislates much, expends much, but accomplishes little. The deliberate, sound judgment of the country is likely to find it has been superceded by a popular whim. The independence of the legislator is broken down. The enforcement of the law becomes uncertain. The courts fail in their function of speedy and accurate justice; their judgments are questioned and their independence is threatened. The law, changed and changeable on the slightest provocation loses its sanctity and authority. A continuation of this condition opens the road to chaos."

EXCELLENT PUBLICITY DUE TO N. W. P. RAILWAY

The Northwestern Pacific Railroad Company's advertising of the territory it serves from Marin's shores to the towering redwoods of Humboldt county is to be greatly commended. The North needs the boosting which such publicity gives it and the Northwestern Pacific has covered all sections of the United States with beautiful literature illustrative of this matchless part of California. The display advertising put out has been of high character and each community has been featured in the manner most advantageous to it. The redwoods, outings in Lake County and on the Russian River, Indian reservations, the lumber mills, the Valley of the Moon, Sonoma Mission, Muir Woods, Burbank's city and the World's Egg Basket have all been included in the handsomely illustrated descriptive of this and sister counties.

In the Southland, where little was ever known about the bay counties and the North; in the Eastern magazines and countless newspapers, we have been getting this most excellent advertising.

The N. W. P. is truly rendering fine service, not only to those of us who want to see the North better known, but to tourists who are entitled to know about the charms and attractions of the country the Northwestern serves and is upbuilding.

ONE CORPORATION'S SPIRIT

"Standard Oil Spirit" is the theme of a comprehensive review of the relations between the personnel and management of the big company. The book lays stress on the value which is placed on the attitude between the employees and the company and brings to mind concrete instances by which is promoted a fine feeling among the large Standard Oil family. Fine housing conditions, good table, hospital facilities, recreation projects, pension benefits and participation in profit-sharing are just a few of the points brought out and prove the fallacy of so-called "soulless corporations."

The Standard Oil demurs to the designation, philanthropic, preferring to let it be known that it pays to deal with employees as this company deals with them.

After reading the little book, gasoline buyers feel that they are doing their bit by encouraging a company which does so much for so many thousands of working men and women.

Senator Hiram Johnson seems peeved that the letter in which he acknowledged his waning popularity and the slim chance of his presidential aspirations was given publicity. Senator Johnson need not feel so badly at the expose. Everybody in California knew it, anyway, with the exception of the remnants of the Johnson machine who hope to get back at Hiram's pie counter. Progressivism, which consisted of the creation of countless jobs and commissions for Johnson favorites, is a thing of the past in this State. Progressive financial methods of the Richardson administration is what the people want. As for Johnson's ambitions to get the nomination for President of the United States, no one knows better than Hiram himself that he has not a chance in the world.

VINEBURG NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Al Groskopf and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Groskopf motored to the State Fair last Saturday.

Frederick Batto Jr., and sister Miss Emily, are the guests of friends and relatives in the bay cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto visited in Petaluma on Wednesday.

The fruit drying season is about closed in this vicinity.

On last Saturday a deer hunting party motored to the ranch of James McCosker and brother in Yolo county and returned home on Tuesday, well pleased with their trip. The party consisted of Messrs James McCosker, B. Schrempp, Frank Rhode, Fritz Bosch, Frank Allen and the mascot, Jas. McCosker Jr., The boys report good luck and nailed one 3 point buck which dressed 160 pounds and small game like coyotes, rattle snakes etc. All speak highly of Frank Rhode who acted as Chef and say he is surely an expert in culinary science and all of them gained from 3 to 5 pounds on the trip

Louis Martin transacted business in the metropolis on Tuesday.

Walter B. Bundschu is now engaged in loading a straight car of choice grapes, the product of the famous Rhine Farm iVineyards. The car is the first shipped direct east from this part of Sonoma Valley and will leave the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. August Figone and family of San Francisco were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Batto

GLEN ELLEN CLUB'S DANCE WAS ENJOYABLE

The September dance of the Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club on last Saturday evening was a most enjoyable affair. The beautiful floor surface of the new club house and good music attracted a fine crowd and dancing continued until a late hour. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall at midnight, the hospitality committee being assisted at the tables by Glen Ellen's Beau Brummel, Arthur Kunde, who helped the ladies serve their guests.

Many improvements were noted at the club house, including shelving for the books. Money for this improvement was derived from the admission charge to the London ranch, now 25c, which is donated by Mrs. Shepard to the club. To date almost $200 has been realized from this source and is aiding materially in finishing the memorial to the late author.

ANOTHER BOOSTER IS HEARD FROM

No matter what attractions this wonderful California of our has, the Valley of the Moon, with its health-giving springs, will always be the Mecca. Fetters Springs, by its central location, being only 10 minutes walk from either of the two most famous hot springs in the valley, is easily the most favored by the tourist—for its home-like resorts and hotels, its unsurpassed climate and its city comforts.

Dining at Cazes' Maison Doree, one is reminded of that famous cafe in the metropolis of the same name, with its never-to-be-forgotten cuisine.

The weekly whist party of the Sonoma Valley Improvement Club is always largely attended and at the last party, under the able supervision of Mrs. Frank Campbell, assisted by Mrs. Evans, an overflowing crowd was present.

Mr. Spitzfaden, of Spitzfaden Resort, reports business very good.

VICTIMS OF EXPLOSION FRIENDS OF T. MULLEN

Frank Hagerty, who was killed in the Hercules powder works explosion last week, and Charles McCoy, who was badly injured, were friends and former fellow employees of Tom Mullen, popular El Verano resident. Tom worked side by side with both of them when he was employed at the big powder works in the danger zone. McCoy writes to Mullen that he was hurled 20 feet in the air but escaped with a badly lacerated ear and other disfigurements.

MAXWELL NURSERY BUYS SONOMA LAND

The Maxwell Nursey Company of Napa Valley have purchased 60 acres of Sonoma Valley land from Acquistapace Bros. This land is a portion of the former James Tate ranch and lies along the creek. For several seasons it was planted to tomatoes.

The Maxwell Nursery Company will use the acreage for a branch nursery to supply the needs of Valley of the Moon growers.

ANOTHER MOTORIST

Ray Manuel, local blacksmith and horseshoer, has purchased a car and says he is getting a real "kick" out of it.

NORTHWEST CALIFORNIA ADVERTISED IN SOUTH

All through the summer the story of Northwestern California's attraction; its scenery, its historic association, its delightful climate; is being told in the Southland, through the advertising of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad .

For the first time, display advertisements in Los Angeles newspapers are describing the charms of Marin County and the Russian River resorts the giant Redwoods, the mineral springs Eureka, and all the Northwestern country. In this advertising, the people of Southern California are urged to know their own state; Eastern tourist visiting the Southern cities are likewise invited to turn northward if they would really see California. Travel and vacation booklets descriptive of the region are being distributed in the southern counties.

Promoting the northwestern section of California in state-wide and national publicity, the Northwestern Pacific is carring forward the good effect gained for this terratory through the extensive advertising of "Californians, Inc."

All this publicity at a time when the eyes of the nation are turned toward California is attracting many tourists and prospective settlers to this part of the country, as well as well as draw ing vacation crowds to fill the resorts and hotels.

Making a Home.

"It takes a heap o' living in a house to make it a home," writes Edgar A. Guest, the Detroit author. And it takes only a little common sense in the selection of furniture to make that home better furnished according to the American scale. Sentiment surrounds the furniture in the home as well as it centers on some particular spot or locality in which that home was built. In fact, sympathy for good furniture means better furnished homes and the treatment of that furniture.

SONOMA HIGH SCHOOL HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE

Sonoma Valley high school opened this term with an increased attendance. The total enrollment to date is 170 with at least 10 more students to come. The part time students have not been included but if it becomes necessary to organize their class the enrollment will total this year close to 200. The attendance will have almost doubled in three years.

By classes, the enrollment is as follows:

First year—59.
Second year—44.
Tihrd year—44.
Fourth year—22.
Special—1.

There are 85 boys and 85 girls in attendance.

The most popular course is the commercial with the university preparatory a close second. The agricultural course has an enrollment of about 25, a somewhat better showing than in the average school.

Already seven classes have been divided into two or more sections. Eleven other classes are crowded to the capacity of the room or present equipment. The teachers will carry more than an average load of work this year.

At least 13 new pupils have enrolled to date who have attended another high school or have graduated from grammar schools outside of Sonoma Valley.

The attendance indicates that there are seven new families in the valley since the last school year. Three new pupils come from San Francisco, three from Los Angeles, one from Vallejo, one from North Dakota, one from Oakland and the remainder from various parts of the state.

CARL POPPE'S SILVER TROPHY AT GLEN ELLEN

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Poppe are the proud custodians of the handsome silver trophy won by their son, Carl, in the Chronicle's golf championship of Northern California. Carl Poppe defeated C. Bieler at the Lincoln Park golf course in this event.

The former Sonoma Valley boy is a comer among Pacific Coast players and has recently played at the Feather River Inn links and also at Del Monte

When in the Valley of the Moon he plays on the local course, which he pronounces excellent. He is also interesting his father, Charles Poppe of Glen Ellen, in the great international sport.

MISS POMEROY HAS RETURNED FROM CHICAGO

Miss Virginia Pomeroy has returned to her home in Santa Rosa from Chicago, where she went four months ago to continue her dancing instructions in the school of Russian ballet dancing there. Miss Pomeroy left with her father immediately upon her arrival for Lake county to join her mother and brother who are summering there.

Miss Pomeroy has given several months this summer to special instruction in Russian ballet. After her vacation she will return to Santa Rosa and resume her dancing classes.

Miss Kate McDonnell, Sonoma librarian, left for a vacation to Bass Lake in the high Sierras, this week, accompanied by Mrs. Monk of the former Miner place, Glen Ellen.

PANCRAZI TILLS SOIL WITH MARKED SUCCESS

G. Pancrazi, writer and poet in the Italian language, and former hotel keeper of Glen Ellen, has hearkened back to the advice of Ovid, Horace, Virgil and other of the classics and gone back to tilling the soil. He has reclaimed creek land at Glen Ellen and along the picturesque banks of the winding stream has as pretty a truck garden as can be found in northern California. Pancrazi cultivates 5 acres and this season he raised Valley of the Moon watermelons which for color and sweetness would take a prize at the state fair.

The successful agriculturist is the pater familias of the well known Glen Ellen family, his daughters and son, Julius, being popular residents of the upper part of the valley.

Bring your furniture "Up to date"

STYLES in furniture change with the times, just as do styles in dress. That is why many ingenious housewives rely on Fuller Enamels and Decoret Varnish Stains to bring their furniture up to date.

For refinishing the surface in imitation of natural wood such as Dark Oak, Rosewood and Walnut, use Decoret Varnish Stains. The newest colors when painted furniture is in vogue will be found in Fuller's Art Decorative Enamel. Then there is Silkenwhite Gloss or Semi-Gloss Enamel, which produces an intense white or olden ivory finish for the woodwork of the room.

Ask for Fuller Paints and Varnishes, by name, at the local dealer's. Or write our Service Department for advice. Our "Home Service" booklet is FREE. Whatever your painting need, W. P. Fuller & Co. makes a paint for the purpose.
